RUMOURS OF STRANGE GOINGS ON IN THE ALFS

by Ralph Diment

There are rumours of strange goings on in the Alps; so what is this all about? Maybe it's time for some ovedue background information. While Timmy spent 1990 and 1991 playing with Moles (RHBNC Caving Club) Ralph was playing with Marmots (large furry things that squeak). Apart from having a good time this also involved exploring an area of the Alps north of Mount Blanc. Due to low snow falls over a period of about 5 years a proliferation of previously snow-plugged pots has appeared. The 1992 summer trip discovered over 50 new entrances of which 8 were bolted and bottomed; not bad for four days work!

The area lies roughly 25km north of Mount Blanc and is in spitting distance of the Gouffre Jean Bernard (across the valley on Lyon's patch). Most of the caves fall within a nature reserve with access controlled bt Annemasse Caving Club who have been exploring the mountain for some years. Their deepest find to date, A3, is a 3-day, -700m monster; while their neighbours, Lyon, are actively pushing a dye-traced connection with 2000m vertical range (!!!), from both ends!

The area is divided into four sectors: A, B, C, D; A being the lowest and best explored, D the area of current activity. These lie on the north side of a deep glacial valley (only a tiny stump remains) with sharply disected, bare limestone. The surface is full of cavities; many are tight, vertical shafts up to 50m deep, some form substantial shakeholes, others consist of deep rifts over 100m long. There is considerable variety in the composition of the limestone and this is reflected in the nature of the cave entrances. Area D has deep vertical shafts while a few hundred metres north, on the Swiss border, the rock is particularly hard with an almost unbroken surface.

Last summer's visit was not very productive due to extreme rainfalls. Most finds in area D were made the previous year. Since then, other commitments has meant little further work has been undertaken after leaving the hill at the end of the 1992 trip feeling we had only just started.

So, a whole hill of previously unexplored pots waiting to be bagged. Sounds too good to be true?......Well there are problems of access; it is not difficult, but it is quite a stroll from the nearest road. Caves are easy to spot as there is virtually no vegetation, soil, etc. But, that means quite a lot of it is down the caves. Even the biggest shafts can be plugged, so some exploring/poking around/digging will probably be needed. The snow that held up exploration until now still blocks a large number of shafts and this winter's heavy dumps may have sealed a few back up. And finally, absolutely no effort has been made to map the area, yet.

Enter the MCG. The Group's packing its grotts and shmoofing off, alp bound, for two and a bit weeks at the end of August. The trip has the go-ahead of Annemasse Caving Club, but bearing in mind the nature of the area and the need to closely co-ordinate work, caving places must be kept to around twelve. However, the area has superb scenery, a very comfortable refuge and I am currently investigating the possibility of camping. So extra visitors will be welcome, especially if they fancy humping gear up to 2000m! Who knows, maybe even give A3 a go.

If you would like to come along or get some more details get in touch as soon as possible as places are limited and a lot of members have already expressed an interest. Roll on summer!

CONGRATULATIONS to Nick Wood on becoming a full member.

WELCOME to Gordon Woodall, Pete Moseley and Pete O'Rourke who have been accepted as probationary members.

FOLLOW THE LEADER Nick Gilson and Charlie Allison are now the MCG leaders for Charterhouse Cave. For their telephone numbers, and details of other MCG leaders, please see page 2.

SIGN HERE Could members please note that cheques should be made out to MENDIP CAVING GROUP and not MCG. As all cheques are now crossed "account payee" the bank will not accept them if they are payable to "MCG" or "The Treasurer".

1994 SUBS OVERDUE and according to the Constitution, "members failing to pay by Jan 31st may have their membership terminated." The list of unpaid members will be considered at the committee meeting on 5th March, so please pay before then! If you wish to apply for reduced rates, apply to the secretary, Joan Goddard, by 4th March.

MCG BEAT THE TAXMAN!
Many thanks to Alan Mellon for recovering the tax paid on subscriptions for 1990/91 and 1991/92. This totalled £898.35, and a further £400+ is due for 1992/93. If you do not already covenant your subscription, please contact Joan Goddard for a form.

SRT ROPE Please check with the other riggers or the tackle master before taking out the SRT rope for any length of time. Recently all the SRT rope was already out when two riggers had planned a day's SRT trip on Mendip. It seems the rope had been taken out by another rigger for a long period (ie. more than a weekend) without first informing either the the other riggers or the tackle master.

CAVING VIDEOS If members have any caving videos they could loan to the committee, a member has offered to duplicate them. The copies would be kept in the library and could be used at armchair meets and other functions.

CAVE RESCUE The MCG's rescue practice held on February 5th was a great success with about 30 members turning out to rescue Phil Ingold into and out of Swildon's (which was extremely wet). Two MRO observers, Jim Hanwell and Brian Prewer, gave much valuable advice and watched us take Phil in... but didn't stay to see if we not him out again! Bur thanks to their help and the loan of their stretcher, drag sheet and Molephone. John Crowsley, who organised the event, did a superb job both before and during the rescue, then followed it up with a useful de-briefing back at the cottage. As a result of everyone, including Phil, talking about their views and experiences, a lot of valuable lessons were learned and some good ideas mooted for future rescues (and practices). Many thanks to our excellent rescue warden, John Crowlsey and his right-hand man(!) Vanessa Gill for their organisational skills, to Phil Ingold our "professional" victim, and to all the members who joined in to make the whole event a valuable experience.

The next rescue practice is planned for 4th February 1995 and will take place into and out of Waterwheel Swallet with Phil as our victim once again.

WALKING WETSOCKS After the rescue practice there was a lot of wet neoprene lying around in the changing room. When everyone had finally gathered theirs up some people found that they had wetsuit socks missing. Richard Carey (0272-862029) is minus a pair of size 8, single lined socks with sharkskin outer.

Phil Ingold (0442-242029) is minus a pair of size 9 socks, black inside and out.

Phil took home by mistake a pair of size 6 socks with blue lining, so at least one other person must be missing a pair of socks too.

TIMES PAST or rather forgotten. In the advert for the archaeology walk on Saturday 5th March I forgot to mention a time to meet. I would like everyone to be at Nordrach Cottage at 9:30am for a 10:00am departure.

KNOT-TYING A little bat told me that Tom Thomas is to marry Elizabeth (?) some time in March. MCG wish them both every happiness and good luck for the future.

MCG PHOTO CALL Joan has had a good response to her request for photos for the 40th Dinner. Keep them coming, especially photos from the 70's and 80's which are under-represented so far.

UPPER FLOOD UPDATE

by Joan Goddard

The December 1993 newsletter contained an article by Tim Francis describing the radiolocation of Rip-Off Aven, and subsequently I was asked to investigate the possibility of MCG opening a second entrance to Upper Flood. This would allow access to the further reaches of the cave without the need to pass through Sunset Boulevard with its vulnerable formations.

On 15th January I was present at a site meeting which was also attended by Les Davis and Tina ? (Mendip Wardens), Terry Matthews (Charterhouse Centre), the County Field Archaeologist, and representatives of SCC Countryside Services and English Heritage. There was a useful exchange of information and no overwhelming objections were put forward, but it is obvious that gaining permission to excavate in the depression will be a protracted affair requiring us to put forward a well prepared and detailed proposal.

Because of the archaeological history of the area we are required to obtain Scheduled Monument Consent from the Department of National Heritage BEFORE any work is done. To undertake any work before then would be a criminal offence. A Hymac would not be acceptable and the excavation within the superficial materials would have to be carried out as an archaeological dig with adequate supervision by someone approved by English Heritage.

Somerset County Council, the owners of the site, are particularly concerned that the general public who visit Blackmoor in large numbers should be put at no risk. For this reason we should aim to complete the dig as rapidly as possible, and we would require a firm commitment from a substantial number of the Group to work over a limited period. The pipes must be inserted and a locked lid installed as soon as possible after the dig commences. From the public access point of view we should avoid the summer season. Christmas/New Year period is likely to have adverse weather and ground conditions (Blackmoor Valley was a lake last Christmas, and by mid-February it still has not dried out). Therefore it seems sensible to aim for Easter 1995, and we would like to hear from members who would be prepared to help then.

The whole undertaking appears to be quite formidable, but I am currently liaising with Somerset County Council and progressing with the initial stages of the application for Scheduled Monument Consent. I am also in touch with an archaeologist from Bristol University who happens to be a caver (not UBSS!) and is willing to help with the dig.

Any help and ideas regarding this project would be most welcome. Joel, Tim, Lee and myself, amongst others, would be happy to discuss any suggestions you may have.

NEW T-SHIRTS - YEAH!!!

The promised new t-shirts are now (hopefully!) in stock and are in the cupboard in the Foremans Lounge along with the sweatshirts (the key is on the back of the library door). The price is £5 each - please write out receipts and cheques as you did when buying sweatshirts. The design on the front of the t-shirts is shown opposite and was the one favoured most in the competition at last years AGM.

COLDURS: WHITE, LIGHT BLUE, CERISE, GREY

SIZES: MEDIUM, LARGE, EXTRA LARGE

We have since received a humerous design from Pete Bulling which has an apt slogan to go with Bob Speleo in the remains of the first Nordrach Cottage. We plan to use this as a future t-shirt or sweatshirt motif. We will display it in the newsletter nearer the time.

RETURN TO BEASTWATER

A history of one man's emotional turmoil in 1990-1994.

by Jules Flavell

(18) British Board of Film Classification : not suitable for those of over 18 I.Q.

8.11.90 Back in 1990 Tim Francis promised me an enjoyable stroll down to the West End-"But we can take the 33 bus via Hammersmith", I replied, which was met with an aggressive "you philistine Jules"!! That was the last I was to hear of it until a month later when to my astonishment I was bundled/kidnapped into Tim's "car" and spirited off along the M4. As it was only my 8th or 9th caving trip and my first trip to the Mendips - where the fk are they? - I was expecting a 1-2 hour easy-life trip down Swillys or somewhere, then to the pub to consume vast amounts of Old Peculiar (sorry, Butcombe Mindscrewer). About 2 miles from Leigh Delamere services Tim passed me the guide, which decribed Eastwater and sent me into a fit of convulsions, especially as it was ping it down. Anyway to cut a long story short, it was hell for 14 hours - sheer hell, - super hell. Eastwater took me on and punished me severely - I swore that I would only return to "Exorcist Eastwater" for 500 crates of Banks Mild!

31.12.93 Three years later, after an intensive course of councelling and electric shock treatment I had just got over my past Beastwater syndrome when this morning I was tricked into a trip down that "eternal rift to hell". As the silhouetted image of Eastwater Farm materialised in front of my bleary alcoholic eyes, I began to tremble, and the Cornish pasties from the nice corner shop next to Bat Products began to turn over. I tried to convince myself I was paranoic but then I saw the plaque. The flashbacks came back as I was transported back to the Vietnam of the caving world.

EPISODE DEUX In my daze I made my way through the barbed wire and minefield under heavy napalm fire to the entrance which was receiving huge amounts of water. Malcolm proclaimed "I have never seen it this wet before", and Julie said "It is quite moist!" "It's as cold as a penguins chuff", said Jules.

Worse was to come. "Tim, Tim, help, the rift is here — I'm slipping, I'm going, I'm going — Nightmare!!" It was happening again, I was being sucked down into the belly of the beast, and the Unforgettable Fire. Anyway I was saved by the hand of Tim. We ventured forth to our next challenge (unfortunately Aneka wasn't there, next series maybe, but after much debate and philosophical discussion it was decided that Miss H was a suitable replacement, so on with the plot!) which was another rift and another one, and after tight squeezy hole and that a really tight squeezy hole and at last our destination was arrived at - the Twin Vertical pitches which we did on SRT (thanks to some excellent rigging by Julie - Z free hangs, 30ft and 60ft respectively). Then Malcolm we go and see (spot the continuity error) the 19 pots "unmeasurable to man" - and they certainly were! - especially as one on the return journey took us 20 minutes to scale its slippery slope and FA up to the pitches which were ascended without any problem. Oh yes, and Malcolm pulled off his amazing juggling hand-jammer off his amazing juggling hand-jammer party trick!! We bypassed most of the oncoming vehicles — sorry rifts (ie. those between reality and fantasy land!) to the exit - aren't they the euthanasia people you consult after a Beastwater trip?

EPISODE TROIS (Back in England). The exit water levels has increased since our entrance - seriously, so we got even more wet and escaped with only a slight loss of our oh so valuable sanity!

Team members: Tim Francis, Jules Flavell, Julie Hesketh, Malcolm Cotter.

MCG FORUM 1994

As a result of the questionnaire sent out with the subs request form, the Half-yearly Forum will be on 5th November 1994 followed by a Barn Dance at Chewton Mendip Village Hall. This was the clear preference of members. Next popular was a dinner party at the cottage which could be held in the summer, maybe with a barbecue, and spill out into the garden. There is no reason why the Group can't have the other functions mentioned if someone is prepared to help organise them. (Us older members of the committee wouldn't know where to start to organise a Blues Evening or a Disco.)

robbed off The last newsletter said you would be receiving a credit-card sized card but the smaller keyfobs arrived from the manufacturer just after the newsletter had been printed. Sorry for any confusion. The new electronic security system at the cottage is now operating. Your old key is still needed for the old lock, which has been altered so that it operates as a deadlock only. When this has been unlocked, place your keyfob against the black rectangle on the electric meter box to release the new lock.

The electronic lock can be "bypassed" during your stay at the cottage, just as you can probably bypass your own front door lock. At home, you probably have a Yale-type lock which automatically holds the door closed when it is pulled shut. A catch on the inside allows you to leave the door "on the latch" so you can close the door without locking yourself out. At the cottage, the new lock can be set in a similar way, with a small catch on the lock body, on the inside edge of the door. With the lock set in this way, and with the deadlock open, you can enter and leave without any key. You can leave the cottage and set the deadlock only, eg whilst caving or at the pub, but it is essential that the door is not left "on the latch" when you finally depart from the cottage. Release the catch so that the electronic lock will operate, and set the deadlock with your cottage key.

You will have noticed that the keyfobs have your name, a number, and an "if found..." note on them. To prevent this getting wet / muddy / grubby / erased you could cover the fob with a piece of sticky-backed plastic (W H Smith sells it).

SHOVE OFF! Ever wondered what the spot-light was for between the lecturn and the clock? When we built the cottage, the Foreman was heavily into shove ha'penny and planned to install a slate in the lounge. That was in 1980 — fourteen years on the Group has had a lovely slate shove ha'penny board donated, and the ha'pennies too. We may put it under the spot-light as originally planned, but the new library extension has also been suggested... any other ideas?

COTTAGE EXTENSION The proposed plans are being revised to incorporate a porch at the front door, as it was pointed out that it would be more economical and practical to carry out this work at the same time as extending the library. New plans will be ready shortly.

DANGER! Brought to our notice is the dodgy state of two popular Mendip caves. We have been told that the boulders in Eastwater are moving again, and that Singing River Mine is extremely dangerous due to the entrance shoring giving way making it unstable. A lot of debris has been deposited at the foot of the entrance shaft making the way on almost impossible. You also stand the risk of getting blocked in if there are further collapses while you are underground!

PINETREE POT The guaranteed unjammable outdoor all-weather mudresistent padlock... jammed recently! It has been freed by a locksmith, but by way of maintenance a squirt of WD40 should be applied every couple of weeks.

SWOILDON'S! Wessex Cave Club members have worked hard to isolate the oil in Swildon's. It is just past Caliper Pot on the round trip. Mats have been laid to soak up the oil which will then be brought out of the cave.

Plans are being considered to install a calibrated V-notch wier in the stream above Swildon's to monitor water flow.

MENDIP CAR CRIME Total car break-ins in 1993 from the caving areas were 123. Of these, 92 were from Burrington and 12 from GB. You have been warned!

MALLORCA CAR CRIME Tim Francis reports that cavers' cars are now being targeted, particularly at Cueva de Can Sion and Cueva de Cal Pesso. Also, gear left inside cave entrances is being rifled. In Cal Pesso, candle-bearing local youfs first ransacked Tim's gear, then got themselves stuck on an exposed traverse with a 100m drop. Being a decent sort of chap, Tim rescued them despite the urge to blow their candles out while they were on the wrong side of the traverse.

CAVING COPPERS? Yes, Avon and Somerset Constabulary have their own Sub-Aqua Club and they invite you to an evening with Gavin Newman who will be showing two of his highly acclaimed audio-visual multi-projector sound sequences:-

Underwater, Underground, Under China "Caverns of the Dragon"

> Under New Guinea "Caves of Thunder"

This event will take place at 7:30pm on Wednesday 16th March 1994 at Bristol University Chemistry Lecture Theatre, Cantocks Close (off Woodlands Rd) Bristol. Cost £4 at the door or £3.75 if booked in advance. Tel: 0275-816025.

UPPER FLOOD LEADERS
Joan is experiencing difficulty finding Upper Flood leaders to take people down when she has had a request for guest trips. The task usually falls on the same few leaders who live locally or cave on Mendip regularly.

Joan has also had requests from other members who wish to be Upper Flood leaders and as some existing leaders cave on Mendip infrequently, perhaps they would be happy to move over to let some of the "regulars" have a go? If you wish to remain an Upper Flood leader then please let Joan know by 31st March 1994 (address and tel. on page 2). If she does not hear from you by this date she will assume you no longer wish to be a leader and will remove your name from the list. If you wish to become a leader, and you are prepared to take a turn in leading groups from other organisations, please contact Joan.

Listed below are the current MCG Upper Flood leaders.

OFD ACCESS Life has been very difficult for SWCC duty officers this year as unscrupulous persons have been attempting to gain access by claiming to belong to respected and valued regular clubs when they have no right to do so. Not only does this show a higher degree of insanity than among we normal cavers but must be deplored as we use the permits as a conservation method which far) liberally works (50 Officers will be efficiently. Duty asking you to show your (MCG) Membership Card so you should be warned they could well be needed. (Knowing the memory-span of the average caver, maybe these should be tattooed on the body or embossed on caving wellies!) We regret this extra bit of beaurocracy but it is sadly a sign of the times.

Cheers. Elsie Little, Permit Sec., SMCC
